Христос воскрес! Воїстину воскрес!

Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is Risen!

April 10, 2021

“GIVE and it will be GIVEN unto YOU” (Luke 6:38)

“What are your roots and how do those details form your identity?” Said differently, “what is Your calling and how does your past urge you to make good choices in the future?” Let us recall that our baptism is a turning point in our life, calling us to be more and more like Christ and giving us the grace to be Jesus for others!

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus speaks about our potential and who Jesus is calling us to be for others.

“Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given unto you. (Luke 6:38)

All that God has given you is intended to help you fulfil your potential to become Jesus for others. And if you “give generously, much will be given to you”.

I saw a sign outside of a store one day that said, “God gives and forgives, often we get and forget!” So, I ask myself, “how can I be more like God who gives and forgives”? This year’s Annual Eparchial Appeal is both a gift to those who will benefit from your generosity as much as you will benefit from your generosity. “Give, and it will be given unto you!”

In Christ,

Most Rev. Bryan Bayda, CSsR
Eparch of Saskatoon
