Initiatives & programs to be funded by the 2026 Annual Eparchial Appeal

Ukrainian Catholic Religious Education Centre (UCREC)

Led by the Sister Servants of Mary Immaculate, UCREC offers the Eparchial Faith Formation Program, strengthening the life of our Eparchy through scripture, spirituality, liturgy, and theology. Graduates serve as catechists, cantors, Eucharistic ministers, hospital visitors, and parish and youth workers, faithfully supporting parishes across our Eparchy.

St. Matthew Clergy Society

The ministry of our clergy is one of the greatest blessings in our Eparchy. They guide our parishes, care for our families, and sustain the spiritual life of our Church. The St. Matthew Clergy Society helps support them by providing supplemental health and dental coverage, life insurance, and retirement assistance for clergy who have faithfully served our Church.

Bishop Roborecki Foundation

Every priest, deacon, and religious leader in our Eparchy begins their vocation through education and formation. The Bishop Roborecki Foundation helps make this possible by supporting the training of seminarians and clergy. Your support helps prepare the spiritual leaders who will serve our Church and community for generations to come.

Eparchial Diaconate Program

Five men in our Eparchy are currently answering the call to serve as permanent deacons. Since the fall of 2025, they have been participating in the Eparchial Diaconate Program, receiving spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral formation under the guidance of our clergy. Your support helps form the deacons who will serve at our altars, visit the sick, comfort the grieving, and strengthen parish life.

Chancery Office

In recent years, the financial resources that once supported many of our ministries have declined, while the needs of our parishes and faithful continue to grow. Administrative support, pastoral care, formation programs, and essential services remain vital to the life of our Church. The Annual Eparchial Appeal helps sustain these ministries and ensures that Christ's mission continues in our Eparchy. Every gift, no matter the size, strengthens our Church and supports the faithful in our communities.
